Family Place-Parents and their children, ages 1 to 3, have the opportunity to spend time together playing, creating crafts and meeting new people in the Family Place workshop. Information on child development, parenting and community resources will also be available at each session. This program is made possible through the support of the Friends of the Tempe Public Library, the Arizona Community Foundation and Libraries for the Future. Registration begins Monday, August 23 at the Youth Desk in person or call (480) 350-5522. Classes are on Wednesdays from 9:30-10:45am, Sept. 8-Oct. 6. Registration is limited to 20 families.

PBS Ready To Learn at the Library-KAET-TV Channel 8 and the Tempe Public Library are partnering to present five fun learning sessions with some friends from PBS KIDS' programming. Families can come learn the magic formula for enhancing a child's literacy development-VIEW/READ/DO. Participants will view a clip from a PBS KIDS program, do a fun activity and listen to a book which participants will be given to take home. At the end of the 5 weeks, each family will have a five book mini library. Parents will receive helpful educational materials as well. So come play and learn with friends like the Teletubbies, Elmo, Caillou, Barney and Mister Rogers. (PBS Ready To Learn is supported by a cooperative agreement from the U.S. Department of Education.) Registration begins Monday, Sept. 27 at the Youth Desk in person or call (480) 350-5522. Classes are on Fridays from 10:00-10:30, Oct 15-Nov 12. Registration is limited to 20 families.
